THE CUSTOMER'S ATTENTION IS PARTICULARLY DRAWN TO THE CLAUSES HERE OF WHICH EXCLUDE OR LIMIT THE COMPANY'S LIABILITY, THOSE WHICH REQUIRE THE CUSTOMER TO INDEMNIFY THE COMPANY IN CERTAIN CIRCUMSTANCES AND TO THE CLAUSE GRANTING THE COMPANY A SECURITY INTEREST IN THE GOODS.

DEFINITIONS

1. In these Conditions:
- "Company" means AIR-SEA FORWARDERS, INC.
- "the Owner" means the Owner of the goods (including any packaging, containers or equipment) to which any business conducted under these conditions relates and any other person who is or may become interested in them.
- "Customer" means any person at whose request or on whose behalf the Company undertakes any business, or provides advice, information or services.

CONDITIONS GENERALLY APPLICABLE

2. (A) All and any activities of the Company in the course of its freight forwarding business including and advice, information or service provided by the Company whether gratuitously or not are undertaken subject to these conditions except for those activities undertaken by the Company on the basis of the conditions printed on:
- (i) the Company's House Air Waybill relating to the consolidation and carriage of goods by air or
- (ii) the Company's House Bill of Lading relating to the consolidation and carriage of goods sea.
- (B) If any legislation is compulsorily applicable to and business undertaken, these conditions shall, as regards such business, be read as subject to such legislation and nothing in these conditions shall be construed as a surrender by the Company of any of its rights or immunities or as an increase of any of its responsibilities or liabilities under such legislation and if any part of these conditions be repugnant to such legislation to any extent such part shall as regards such business be overridden to that extent and no further.
- (C) Certain clauses of these conditions permit modification thereof if the Company agrees in writing. To be effective, the writing must be signed by a Director, Officer of the Company. The other clauses may not be modified. If the Customer wishes to contract with the Company otherwise than subject to the clauses which do not permit modification, special arrangements can be made and revised prices quoted but such arrangements shall only apply if made in writing and signed by a Director, Officer of the Company. Save as aforesaid no agent or employee of the Company has the Company's authority to waive or vary these conditions.
3. (A) The Company is a Freight Forwarder and, subject to the following provisions, shall be entitled to arrange all or any of the carriage, storing, packing or handling of the goods, or any other services required by the Customer, as an agent on behalf of the Customer, or to provide all or any part of such services as principal contractor.
- (B) When acting as an Agent, the Company does not make or purport to make any contract with the Customer or Owner for the carriage, storage, packing or handling of any goods nor for any other physical service in relation to them and acts solely on behalf of the Customer subject to the terms of these Conditions in securing services by establishing contracts with third parties so that direct contractual relationships are established between the Customer and such third parties.
- (C) To the extent that the Company itself by its own servants performs all or any part of the carriage, storage, packing or handling of the goods, or any other services required by the Customer, the Company shall be deemed to provide such services, or the part so performed, as principal contractor.
- (D) The charging or agreement to charge a fixed price for any service shall not of itself determine whether the Company arranges such service as agent or provides the same as principal contractor.
4. The Customer warrants that he is either the Owner or the authorized agent of the Owner and also that he is accepting these conditions not only for himself but also as agent for and on behalf of the Owner.
5. In authorizing the Customer to enter into any contract with the Company and/or in accepting any document issued by the Company in connection with such contract, the Owner, sender and consignee accept these conditions for themselves and their agents and for any parties on whose behalf they or their agents may act and in particular but without prejudice to the generality of this clause, they accept that the Company shall have the right to enforce against them jointly and severally any liability of the Customer under these conditions or to recover from all or any of them any sums to be paid by the Customer which upon proper demand have not been paid.
6. The Customer warrants that the description and particulars of any goods furnished by or on behalf of the Customer are full and accurate.

9. Except insofar as may be required to comply with the Customer's instructions as regards documentation, or except under special arrangements previously made in writing the Company shall not be obliged to arrange for the goods to be carried, stored or handled separately from other goods.
10. (A) No insurance will be effected except upon express instructions given in writing by the Customer, and all insurances effected by the Company are subject to the usual exceptions and conditions of the policies of the insurance company or underwriters taking the risk. Unless otherwise agreed in writing, the Company shall not be under any obligation to effect a separate insurance on each consignment but may declare it on any open or general policy held by the Company.
- (B) Insofar as the Company has received written instructions to arrange insurance, the Company acts solely as Agent for the Customer using its best endeavors to arrange such Insurance.
11. (A) Whilst the Company agrees to use its endeavors to carry out its services within a reasonable time, no date for completion is fixed and in particular but without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing the Company accepts no responsibility for departure or arrival dates of the goods except under special arrangements previously made in writing.
- (B) If at any stage in any transaction the Company should reasonably consider that there is good reason in the Customer's interests to depart from any of the Customer's instructions, the Company shall be permitted to do so and shall not incur any additional liability in consequence of the doing.

The Company shall also be entitled to issue a warehouse receipt when, at the time the goods are received, the Company is unable to issue an air waybill for air carriage or a Bill of Lading for sea carriage due to the lack of shipping instructions or for any other reason. The cost of storage of the goods and of transportation to and from the warehouse, if provided by, paid for or payable by the Company or any agent or subcontractor of the Company shall be paid by the Customer or Owner to the Company.
- (B) After notifying the person on whose account the goods are stored, the Company may require payment of any charges and removal of the goods from the storage 30 or more days after the notice is given, or within such shorter time as permitted by applicable law if the goods are about to deteriorate in value or are a hazard to other property or persons.
